

GLOBAL STUDIES IN EDUCATION

Global Studies in Education (GSE) deals with global change and education from social justice and critical democracy perspectives. The program focuses on the globalization of policy, childhood, ideas, institutions and technology, and explores pedagogy and learning in different contexts

A degree in Education Policy, Organization & Leadership with a concentration in GLOBAL STUDIES IN EDUCATION prepares you to:

- Understand and conduct research on issues relating to how global processes related to the economy, migration, culture and politics affect educational policy and practice.
- Develop awareness about growing up, teaching, learning, and working in a digital age.
- Succeed in a variety of educational and organizational environments that emphasize effective and critical engagement in education policy, including: international educators, researchers, study abroad and international student coordinators, teachers, and school administrators.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

GSE attracts diverse students from all over the world who go on to work in international schools, government agencies, higher education administration, international programs, civil society organizations, and study abroad offices.

ACCREDITATION

The University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign is a fully accredited university by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
